1. To- day, You see me, Lord, You know all my thoughts and ways; Re-
 2. To- day I see You, Lord, Your pre- sence fills this place; You are
 3. To- day I see my- self in Your awe- some pre- sence, Lord; I am 4. To- day I see my friends in their aw- ful state, so lost; And I cord- ed in Your Book are all my months and days. If I high and lift- ed up, there is glo- ry in Your face. Seat- ed sin- ful and un- clean, Con- vict- ed by Your Word. Though my hear Your plain- tive Voice, Call- ing, "Who will go for Us?" I cry, flee from Your pre- sence, You are there in my dark- ness, Search me there up- on Your throne, You are wor- shiped a- lone, Re- ceive heart is filled with fear, Your pre- sence draws me near, Touch me

 "Here am I, send me, With a wit- ness they can see, Save them by Your Word, Your per- fect, ho- ly Word. praise, O God, my thank- ful, ho- ly praise.

 with Your fire, Your cleans- ing, ho- ly fire.
 by Your grace, Your free and ho- ly grace."
