

Long Before Sunrise Our Savior Arose

Larry A. Hamblen

Jerry D. Hamblen

1. Just be - fore sun-down that sad af - ter - noon, They placed our dear Sav - ior in His bor - rowed tomb; A - fraid that His peo - ple would steal Him a - way The sol - diers stood by as they sealed up His grave. 2. Ear-ly on 3. Je - sus as -

Sun - day with hearts filled with gloom, In love for their Sav - ior they came to the cen - ded, His glo - ry re - stored, He reigns in great pow - er, for Je - sus is tomb; But won - der of won - ders, just like He fore - told, --- Long be - fore Lord! And soon He is com - ing for His cho - sen Bride, And on that great sun - rise, our Sav - ior a - rose. --- --- --- Long be - fore sun - rise, our Sav - ior a - sun - rise, the saints shall a - rise. --- --- --- On that great sun - rise, the saints shall a - rose! Raised in great pow - er, de - feat - ing His foes! Back up to the Fath - er, Tri - rise! For we shall see Him in clouds of the sky! --- Caught up in glo - ry to um - phant He goes, Long be - fore sun - rise, our Sav - ior a - rose! heav - en on high! On that great sun - rise, the saints shall a - rise!

 (Tag) Long be - fore sun - rise, our Sav - ior a - rose!

Copyright © 2004 Hamblen & Hamblen Music. All Rights Reserved. From: www.singpraises.com.

Non-profit duplication is permitted.

CCLI #: 4595207.