Bring Me To Your Mountain

When my bur-den is heav-y and my soul is cast down, When I'm test-ed and trou-bled and know not what to do, There's a place that I go in my pain and a-larm, In-to Your ver-y pres-ence seek-ing guid-ance and truth. Oh, bring me to Your moun-tain, up to Your ho-ly place, in-to Your ver-y pres-ence for mer-cy, love and grace, And lead me to the al-tar, my joy and my de-light, Oh, bring me to Your moun-tain in-to Your per-fect light.
